

Toledo district

Nearly 1700 square mile of prime opportunity for the adventure minded and the adrenaline addicted is the Toledo district of Belize.

A culture lean towards the Mopan and Kekchi Maya is evident and home stays will give you an inside look at how the Maya have balanced tradition with the demands of a modern world.

The ancient Maya cities, intricate cave systems and pristine rainforests headline a long list of attractions Lagoons, rivers, creeks and cayes. All are accessible from the coastal town of Punta Gorda.

Wildlife, bird, trees and plants in astounding variety make Toledo a nature lover's paradise.